

Anti PC Prof Special featuring Michael Rectenwald

Gavin McInnes' podcast:

We devote an entire episode to "Anti-PC NYU Prof" or as he's known to his friends, Michael Rectenwald. The Professor was recently fired for the "structure of his thought" according to an NYU Diversity and Inclusion committee but was rehired and promoted by the school. This has brought extreme hatred from staff and students alike so he's suing the school. We discuss all this and his book "Springtime for Snowflakes" as well as the NYU talk where Rectenwald witnessed Gavin being attacked by students.
