

APT J-Street Challenge: Pro-Peace, Pro-Israel, Pro-Iran?

Charles Jacobs of Americans for Peace and Tolerance (APT) posted this hard hitting YouTube video part of APT's J-Street Challenge film , Pro-Peace, Pro-Israel, Pro-Iran? The focus in this brief YouTube is on the interlock between J-Street and the alleged pro-Islamic Regime lobby group in Washington, National Iranian American Council headed by Swedish Iranian citizen Dr. Trita Parsi. Parsi has deep connections inside the Obama White House, Sahar Nowrouzadeh, a former NIAC employee who is now the NSC Director for Iran.

You may have noticed the President's remarks in a joint Press Conference with Italian President Renzi about 'creative negotiations over lifting 'sanctions' should a final agreement surface by June 30, 2015, a big if. After all, as Ayatollah Khamenei said this weekend, its "just a myth" that Iran is intent on creation of a nuclear weapon.

Breitbart News in a March 31st, 2015 dossier article on Ms. Nowrouzadeh reported:

Found that a person with the same publications on behalf of NIAC. According to what appears to be her maintained a years-long relationship with Iranian Foreign Minister, Javad Zarif.

NIAC was established in 1999, when founder Trita Parsi attended a conference in Cyprus that was held under the
