

'Armed man arrested' at Disneyland Paris hotel

From the French edition of Sky News

A man armed with two hand guns and carrying a Koran has been arrested at a hotel in Disneyland Paris, according to reports on Thursday. The man had at least two firearms and a copy of the Koran, as well as ammunition, according to several reports in the French media.

He was arrested early on Thursday afternoon as he tried to enter the New York Hotel at Disneyland Paris, with his guns setting off the alarms at the security gates. Le Parisien newspaper said the man ... was with a woman who fled the scene

The local prosecutor praised the quick thinking of the security workers at the scene. "It remains unknown if the person intended to cause any harm."

The man, 28, is understood to have made a reservation at the hotel, and was already known to police for a minor traffic infringement, reported Le Parisien.

Update: the woman accompanying him has also been apprehended and arrested according to
