

But His Mind Climbed Up and More

by Jeffrey Burghauer (July 2018)

Andre Salmon and Montmartre, Jules Pascin, 1921

But His Mind Climbed Up

“But his mind climbed up, high from
His heart. He paid hard for that.”[\[1\]](#)

Not mind, not heart, not their sum,
When his mind climbed up, high from
His heart; it was he, the plum,
Punishment was aimed at.

“But his mind climbed up, high from
His heart. He paid hard for that.”

No Smoking

The war against smoking is the war
Against all unauthorized dolor.

Ecce Homo

Substantial, a knotted shrub; a flowered skeleton—

Hummingbirds in anxious multitude between the boughs

Complete the outline, silently, making it a Man.
