

Gaza Gaze Glare

by Gerard Sarnat (August 2024)

If Not, Not (RB Kitaj, 1975-76)

Holes in previously Holier Than Thou
progressive
armor
our

recent past
radical cheeky
limousine liberal
Jewry
 communities
were-are largely wearing their hair shirts while you/we walk right but still often talk left... after watched Bibi's epic Never Again Is Now

Table of Contents

Gerard Sarnat, poet, aphorist, and sometimes meanderist, is widely published internationally in print and online. He has been nominated for the pending Science Fiction Poetry Association Dwarf Star Award, won San Francisco Poetry's Contest, the Poetry in the Arts First Place Award plus the Dorfman Prize; and has been nominated for handfuls of Pushcarts plus Best of the Net Awards. Gerry is a Harvard College and Medical School-trained physician who's built and staffed clinics for the disenfranchised as well as a Stanford professor and healthcare CEO. He's been married since 1969 with progeny consisting of four collections (Homeless Chronicles: From Abraham To Burning Man, Disputes, 17s, Melting the Ice King) plus three kids/ six grandsons—and is looking forward to potential future granddaughters.

Follow NER on Twitter @NERIconoclast