

Never Judge a Book by its Home Page

by Mary Jackson (July 2011)

Mary Seacole? Probably not, but that swoosh, and that £0.00, did the trick. They may also do the trick for schoolchildren failed by our dumbed-down education system. At school they are taught Diversity Studies by teachers who can barely write, but if they have a Kindle with all the classics, they may yet manage to educate themselves.