There is a Jolly Traveling Man

by Michael Shindler (March 2023)

There is a jolly traveling man With a twinkling eye That does what he can, As far as possible, not to die.

And he travels many a mile, Many a full and fulsome day, With a great white smile And eyes that are gray.

But he comes to a crossroad And for a moment blinks And his teeth are yellowed And seeing nothing, he thinks
