

Trump Hatred

by Armando Simón (February 2020)

The Assassin, Titian, 1520

Recently, the pornographer of Hustler Magazine sent out a card showing President Trump having been assassinated by a person while other figures cheered the murder. This is the latest in liberal wishful thinking. A few other instances of leftists advocating the murder of President Trump include Kathy Griffin's image of decapitating Trump (an image echoed by musician and professional freak Marilyn Manson), a musician named Morrisey claiming that he would kill Trump if given a chance ("for the sake of humanity"), video games of shooting him, Johnny Depp, George Lopez, Michael Che "joking" about assassinating Trump, Anthony Bourdain (prior to his death) fantasizing about poisoning Trump, and many other leftist celebrities, as well as other not so subtle messages to assassinate the president, and even a fictional short story about assassinating President Trump—in the New York Times. Isis attempted, but failed to assassinate Trump, which at least shows that Isis and American leftists have some things in common.

The advocacy/wishful thinking of assassinating Trump is a manifestation of their out of control hatred for the man. Such is the degree of their snarling hate that it has extended to bizarre and vicious attacks on the First Lady over insignificant matters, as well as to his grown sons, and even to his minor child, all of it unprecedented in the country's history. It is truly sickening and bizarre. But they see nothing wrong with that.

Ironically—to anyone but them—they constantly proclaim themselves to be against hate while simultaneously insulting and advocating violence at Trump, Trump supporters, Republicans, Christians and white people, when not actually physically attacking them (usually in a mob
