

BBC Bias: Civitas report says 'Auntie' kept Brexiteer voices off the air for a decade

by Sally Ross

A Breitbart London: Whites need not apply

In addition to giving low priority to the opinions of Brexiteers, it seems that the BBC also ignores current studies showing Britain's white working class to be at the bottom of the social ladder.

Recently it has been advertising positions open to everyone but white people; A tweet from BBC Newsbeat calling for a 'Trainee Multi Media Journalist' says:

“This is a @_CreativeAccess scheme for people from a black, Asian or non-white ethnic minority background. Know anyone who’d be suitable? Share this with them!”

Apparently, this is not the first time the publicly-funded broadcaster has posted ‘no whites’ advertisements, showing that the Corporation favors some Equal Opportunities over others.