

Britain's 'worst ever' child grooming scandal exposed: Hundreds of young girls raped, beaten, sold for sex and some even KILLED

The left-languishing, Hope not Hate financing, Labour party mouthpiece Mirror newspaper has finally realised what we have been saying for too many years. They can't bring themselves to mention the 'M' word; they are barely able to mention that the perpetrators are 'Asian' (but from the names of the men convicted we know they don't mean Tibetans, Sikhs or Chinese!). But better late than never. It does mean that they have remembered, at long last, that it is the English white working class whose daughters have suffered and the English mostly white working class who buy their newspapers.

From the local and left-wing national newspapers were fervent in their demonstrate in 2016, with opposition from the Available here.