

Did anyone notice? The RBC Canadian Open Golf Championship

by Bill Corden

It was a lot of fun to watch.

At the “rink” hole, the crowd sang the National Anthem whenever a Canadian player appeared.

The lyrics they used every time were, pointedly,

“In all our SONS command” and not the wokey “in all of US command” Who’d a thunk it ? Canadians standing up to wokeism. Justin Trudeau may have to phone in sick this morning.
