

Dilly Hussain & 5 Pillars – as nasty a piece of work as ever you’ll find

I always knew 5 Pillars the Muslim news site was a nasty entity. Dilly Hussain the Deputy editor also writes for Middle East Eye and the Huffington Post. This tweet has been reported by many to the police as hate speech, and incitement to violence and barely disguised threat of Jewish citizens, (he says Israeli, but I suspect he means any Jews) but I doubt they will do anything.

He is talking about the flight from Tel Aviv that landed in Dagestan yesterday and was stormed by a Muslim mob wanting the Jews. I have read that the flight was for Russian citizens returning after travelling to Israel for medical treatment.

All I can take from this is that eyes are opening all over, and even 'liberals' are having to rethink previous opinions.
