

Eight-year-old girl dies in Manchester terror attack

Do you remember the faces of the little girls who died at Beslan? To us they are innocents. To a certain interpretation of the Koran they, with their music, their smiles, their sense of fun, were mischief makers, set to sow discord in the land. Shameless, as ISIS called them earlier.