

Hope That Those Allowed In To Canada Will Be Only Yazidis, Mandaeans, Armenians, Assyrian Christians

Canada has just agreed to accept 13,000 more refugees from Iraq and Syria. If they are indeed Yazidis, Mandaeans, Assyrians, or Armenian Christians they would qualify as refugees. But if they are Muslims, whether Sunni or Shi'a, they are not refugees but, rather, "refugees," because they have vast territories inhabited by Sunnis or Shi'a, and in any case, they represent a danger to the well-being and safety of Canadians and others in North America, including of course those very Yazidis, Mandaeans, Assyrians, or Armenians who come from the same places, and have been fleeing those very Muslims.
