

Husband, wife and their three teenage daughters held in east London anti-terror swoop

Updated. From the Also held by counter terror officers in July. At the time she was described as the youngest ever person to be held over a terror offence. The girl is since believed to have turned 16.

More if any news is published. As I expected according to Sky TV news the family are indeed from Bethnal Green. I suspect the girls will prove to be pupils/former pupils of
