Join us for entertaining discussion with Ken Timmerman on the release of his 12th book of non-fiction, "And the Rest is History: Tales of Hostages, Arms Dealers, Dirty Tricks, and Spies." His latest opus chronicles his real-life adventures beginning in 1982 with his salvation spiritually and physically when he becomes a hostage for 24 days in a Palestinian dungeon in West Beirut. He and two French hostages are rescued by the French just hours before the building in which they were held was totally destroyed in an Israeli air strike.

After his release, he covers the internecine Palestinian wars, the bombing of the US Embassy, the near simultaneous bombings of French Paras and US Marine Barracks by terrorist mastermind Imad Mughniyeh and much more.

He emerges as recognized international investigative journalist working out of Paris covering transfer of defense and dual use technology to rogue regimes in Iraq and elsewhere, which he sold to sold to mainstream publications in the US and Europe.
