

Irony: Funeral of Garland, Texas AFDI Assailant will be held at KC Mosque that Sought to Ban Free Speech

Hamid Nadir Soofi, Assailant at AFDI Garland, Texas Muhammad Art Event

May 3, 2015

The funeral for assailant Nadir Hamid Soofi of the Garland, Texas AFDI Muhammad Art Contest event will be held Thursday, May 7, 2015 at The Islamic Center of Greater Kansas City \(ICGKC\) in Missouri. The ICGKC is controlled by the Muslim American Society, an affiliate of the Muslim Brotherhood. A former leader at the ICGKC, Mohammed Soltan, who led a national blasphemy petition campaign in 2012 denying free speech under our First Amendment critical of a religion, is currently on trial in Egypt for his role in fomenting Muslim Brotherhood riots in 2013. Soofi, 34, and his Phoenix, Arizona roommate Elton Simpson, 30, were killed Sunday evening, May 3, 2015, in an apparent Jihad assault at an American Freedom Defense Initiative (AFDI) sponsored event held at the Curtis Culwell Education Center in Garland, Texas. They were endeavoring to commit a mass shooting at the Garland AFDI event as punishment for the AFDI's "blasphemous" sponsorship of Muhammad art event. The causingfitna (CF) blog posted today on the Soofi funeral and the irony of ICGKC sponsorship of a blasphemy petition against free speech. The ICGKC petition was disclosed by noted counterterrorism expert Patrick Poole in 2012.

CF reported:

charges of inciting violence.

He is charged with being part of the operations cell that ran the main Muslim Brotherhood protest at the Raba'a Al Adeyawa mosque in Cairo. His cause has been touted by major U.S. media outlets,