

ISIS Inspired Attack: Bombing on Manhattan Subway Platform

UPDATE3: He seems to have come into the country through chain migration – he was sponsored by a “family member” and as luck would have it, he was just under the age when he would have been ineligible. Querulous sort that I am, I question both of these criteria. Was he really a relative (see the case of the “children” among the migrants in Europe).

UPDATE 2: 4 confirmed reported injured and the suspect is reported to have non-life-threatening injuries. His name is Akayed Ullah.

UPDATE: Police say the suspect tried to detonate some kind of strapped on device but it “did not go off completely.” The suspect is said to be from Bangladesh but it’s unknown whether is here on a visa, is a permanent resident, or is a citizen. Police also calling the event “ISIS inspired.”
