

ISIS Threatens Zuckerberg and Dorsey

Gilad Shiloach writes in suspended 125,000 accounts “for threatening or promoting terrorist acts, primarily related to ISIS.” Facebook has said that it works to ensure that A February report by George Washington University Program on Extremism said the amount of pro-ISIS content available on Twitter has been limited by account suspensions since last summer. Suspensions have also devastated the reach of specific ISIS-affiliated users who have been repeatedly targeted, the report said.

Over the last several months, ISIS supporters have Telegram. In the past, dating back to at least September 2014, ISIS supporters have called on “lone wolves” to kill Twitter co-founder Dorsey.