From the Times of Israel and our friend Brian of London. Photograph from Face Book video link here of the speeches given, some in Hebrew, some in English.

His brother spoke of their early life and promised that his family would be looked after. His wife made a speech of impressive dignity and love. His children spoke of their father very movingly. No one spoke of revenge, retaliation or retribution. They spoke of love, and how their love for Mr Fuld, and his for them will ensure they all support each other, in love.
