As reported by David Rosenberg of Israel National News on 18th March.

"Terror in Jerusalem: Israeli Murdered in Attack in Old City of Jerusalem".

'Israeli murdered in stabbing attack near Western Wall in Old City of Jerusalem. Terrorist eliminated.'

'Terrorist eliminated'. Good. That will save the Israelis a great deal of trouble and expense. – CM.

'One person was stabbed in the Old City of Jerusalem on Sunday, in a terror attack on Sunday afternoon.

Just another Muslim 'raid'. Got Muslims within the gates? Got Jihad. – CM

'The victim, an Israeli man roughly 30 years of age, was stabbed on Hagai Street, near the Western Wall in the Old City.

'He was evacuated to the Shaare Zedek Hospital in the city, where he later succumbed to his wounds.

'The stabbing victim was initially identified as a security guard working in the Old City, but later reports have disproved this claim.

'The terrorist was later shot and killed by security forces near the Lion Gate.

'Officials from MDA (that is: Magen David Adom, the Israeli equivalent of the Red Cross – CM) say that the victim suffered stab wounds to his upper torso during the attack.

Muslim stabbers tend to go for the throat, as per the Quranic instructions to 'strike at the neck' or else they stab people in the back. – CM

'Police have closed the Jaffa Gate to traffic in the wake of the attack, and are combing the area for any possible additional terrorists.

'A spokesperson for United Hatzalah reported that emergency medical teams from the organisation treated two people in connection with Sunday's attack. It is unclear if the second individual treated at the scene is the terrorist.

"After being notified by United Hatzalah's dispatch and command centre, of the incident in the Old City", said United Hatzalah volunteer first-responder Dr Yishai Ben Uri Zilbeger, "I arrived at the scene and found one person in his 20s suffering from a stab wound to his upper chest. He was in serious condition. I treated him at the scene for his injuries, after which he was transported from the scene of the incident to the hospital for further care and observation."

'One of the first paramedics to reach the wounded man, Ateret Kohanim Yeshiva student and MDA volunteer Pinchas Balsberg, described the scene of the attack.

"As soon as I received the report of an attack, I took my first-aid kit and the stretcher which we have in the yeshiva and ran to the scene. There was a 20 year old man lying conscious on the sidewalk. He was suffering from numerous stab wounds to his upper body and limbs. (Note 'numerous stab wounds'. This indicates a murderous frenzy; typical Mohammedan 'overkill'. – CM). We evacuated him, using a special bandage to stop bleeding, and evacuated... out of the Old City to the MDA Mobile Intensive Care Unit, who evacuated him to the hospital in critical condition.”

‘Police have identified the terrorist as a resident of the Palestinian Authority, contradicting claims made by some media outlets earlier Sunday that the terrorist was a Turkish national.”

His ethnicity is, in a sense, irrelevant. He was a Muslim. Therefore he is taught, by his cult, to hate and make war upon any unsubmitted human beings, chief among whom, as objects of enmity and hatred, are the Jews. I will observe that this article was open to Comment. There were not a lot of comments, but those that were, showed that there are people in Israel who have a solid grasp of what is going on, and are drawing the inescapable conclusion. One remarked – “In the end, all Arabs, including those currently in the Knesset, will have to be expelled. The tragedy is that a lot more Jews will have to die before this is implemented”. Another – “Terrorist family members should already be on buses to Gaza!” And a third – “Expel all Arabs. In the meantime, take revenge”.

In a further report by Uzi Baruch, also for Israel National News, the name of the Jewish man who was murdered, is given. Adiel Kolman. He leaves behind a young widow and four children.

‘Man murdered in Jerusalem attack: Adiel Kolman”.

‘It was cleared for publication on Sunday night that the Jewish man who was murdered in the attack in the Old City of Jerusalem is Adiel Kolman, a resident of Kochav Hashahar in the Binyamin region, and originally from the community of Keshet in the Golan Heights.

‘Adiel is survived by a wife and four children. His funeral date has not yet been announced.

'Adiel was brought in to the Shaare Zedek Hospital in Jerusalem in critical condition, where doctors fought for his life for several hours before he succumbed to his injuries.

"We regretfully announce that the stabbing victim died of his injuries, despite resuscitation efforts and life-saving activities", the hospital said. "Shaare Zedek sends its condolences to the family".

'The terrorist, a resident of Shechem (Nablus) attacked Kolman with a knife and stabbed him in the upper part of his body.

'The terrorist was shot and neutralized by a policeman, and later died of his wounds.

Good. There will be no expensive trial, no long sojourn in prison at considerable Israeli expense, with always the possibility that the mohammedans will play the hostage game to get him out. He's dead and gone. And I must say I concur with the Israeli commenter, quoted above, who stated that his – the jihadi assassin's – family should all be on buses to Gaza. – CM

'The terrorist, 28, was married, and a father of two children.
He had been granted an Israeli entry permit.

Had he not been granted that permit, Adiel Kolman would still be alive today. No identifiable Muslim from the Muslim colonies in Judea and Samaria should be permitted into any other part of sovereign Israel. Indeed, no Muslim from anywhere should be let into sovereign Israel... and the Muslims already inside will have to be expelled, sooner or later, because they are the sheltering nurturing sea within which a neverending and ever-multiplying swarm of jihadis swim. – CM

'Security forces are investigating the stabbing attack, and are trying to understand how the terrorist was able to reach Jerusalem unhindered, and how he passed the security check in the Old City area despite carrying a knife.'

Perhaps he wasn't. Perhaps a different Muslim had placed the knife somewhere already, for him to pick up.

There is some more about the late unlamented jihadi assassin/ghazi raider, in a third item from Israel National News, by David Rosenberg.

'Jerusalem Terrorist Had Israeli Entry Permit.

'Israel granted terrorist who stabbed and seriously wounded (this report was written early on, before the news of Adiel's death became public – CM) an Israeli man on Sunday afternoon in Jerusalem, had been granted an Israeli entry permit.

'On Sunday, 28 year old Abed al-Rahman Bani Fa'adal, a resident of the Palestinian-Authority-controlled town of Aqraba (that is: 'a Muslim resident of the Muslim-dominated PA-controlled town of Aqraba' – CM), near Shechem (Nablus) in Samaria, stabbed an Israeli man... on Hagai Street in the Old City of Jerusalem.

'The victim was evacuated to Shaare Zedek Medical Centre, where he is listed in critical condition.

And, as we now know, later died. – CM

'The terrorist was later shot and killed by police.

*'On Sunday night it was revealed that the terrorist had been issued an Israeli entry permit, allowing him to cross over from PA-controlled territory into sovereign Israeli territory.

Until and unless all such permits cease to be issued – or are issued only to persons who are definitely known not to be Muslim – murderous attacks of this sort will continue to be carried out by Muslim Arabs from the Muslim colonies in Judea and Samaria. – CM

'The permit was reportedly a temporary entry permit, intended to allow Abed al-Rahman Bani Fa'adal to find work. Fa'adal reportedly received several entry permits in the past...".

Just because a particular Muslim hasn't Gone Jihad in the past doesn't mean that they are never going to Go Jihad in the future. Fa'adal seemed to be a 'peaceful' Muslim, a young man just looking for work. .until all of a sudden, he wasn't, he was a frenzied ghazi raider. And the grim implications of that need to be absorbed not only by Infidel authorities in Israel, but by infidel authorities the world over. – CM
