

Jihadist convicted of planning terror attacks on London landmarks

who was cleared in December 2018 of slashing police with a sword outside the Queen's London residence while shouting "Allahu Akbar", had bragged about deceiving the jury in that trial.