

Lahore: 'Major terror bid' planned for Easter foiled

From the Daily Times

LAHORE: The law enforcement agencies in Lahore have foiled a major terror bid planned for Easter, which is to be celebrated on Sunday (tomorrow), the army said in a statement.

Security forces carried out a 'special' intelligence-based operation (IBOs) near the Punjab Housing Society in Lahore, killing one suspected militant and arresting one woman from the scene . . .The deceased terrorist was seemed to be an Uzbek in-respect to his appearance.

Security personnel also recovered suicide jackets and explosive material from the militants