

Loony left defying logic – more from London last night

Another photograph from Daily Mail. I really can't get my head round her logic. If she is for democracy she would surely accept the result of a democratic election. What does her being not just gay or , but a dominant style of lesbianism, have to do with democracy? Or her idea of democracy as only what SHE finds acceptable?

