

Manchester arena bombing inquiry: 'Serious shortcomings' by BTP and venue security failed to identify Salman Abedi as a threat, report finds

Manchester Arena suicide bomber Salman Abedi should have been identified as a threat on the night of the attack by those in charge of security, a public inquiry into the May 2017 attack has found.

rescued from Libya by the Roal Navy in 2014 and given a home, safety, benefits and an education. Libya was so 'dangerous' that the family flew back and forth frequently. Mama and Papa live there still. We can't see into the hearts of every lame duck rescued, but I think we need to be a little more discerning at who is allowed into the country.
