

Manchester: Student teacher reprimanded after backing teacher who showed picture of Mohammed

An exclusive from what happened at Batley Grammar school recently and I am extremely concerned about the cowardly response from the unions and other bodies connected to teaching. I would like to know whether or not MMU is prepared to stand up for any student who finds themselves in a similar position."

He went on to argue that the protest was a "clear attempt to enforce a de facto blasphemy law on teachers and schools", adding that
