

Manfred Gerstenfeld On The Demonizing Of Israel And The Jews

Here.

Nothing of which you are not grimly and furiously aware, but it might be useful to put it up anyway. Perhaps Angela Merkel will see it, and not show up to declare her anti-Pegida feeling, and not say things like “Islam is part of Germany” which can only discourage those who are trying, as best they can, to wake up others as to what the large-scale presence of Muslims in Germany means for all non-Muslims, and that includes Jews, who one might have thought, had earned the right for some solicitousness, some eagerness on the part of German officials to ensure the conditions that make a Jewish presence possible.
