

Muslim Teacher Recorded Claiming The Charlie-Hebdo Killings A Conspiracy Against Muslims

She said there was no evidence any police had been killed, that it was strange that one particular person was not at the editorial meeting, that there was a plot, against Muslims. But, she added, it was right and proper for Muslims to kill those who defiled the Prophet, as such killings had taken place in the time of the earliest Muslims.

She first denied she had said any of this – before being told that her remarks had been recorded by a student. And they had been.
