

Muslim women should be allowed to wear the veil in court, top judge suggests

This is the result of 20 years of the Judicial Diversity Division of Ministry of Justice, Judicial Group (or whatever they call themselves these days) ensuring that only lawyers who conformed to Common Purpose uniformity of thought and political correctness were appointed as Judges. This is only a 'suggestion' but his opinion will hold sway.

Much is said about the 'independence of the Judiciary'. But 'independence' isn't a problem to the ruling elite if only PC-thinking women and men are appointed. They are now at the very most senior level and I fear will take some dislodging
