

No Gratitude In Tikrit For The Indispensable Help Given By The Americans

Here.

There's a lesson here for the Americans in the upcoming Great Battle of Mosul And Anbar and Raqqa and all around the town. No American airstrikes. No American shipments of more advanced weaponry. No planes, no tanks, no night goggles, no training. No help of any kind. Muslims are the real Kuffar – permanent ingrates toward non-Muslims, no matter how much aid and support those non-Muslims give and keep, idiotically, giving them, in Dar al-Islam, and in Dar al-Harb, come to think of it, too.
