

OUCH! "I Voted"

by Reg Green

Those of you who are being driven a step nearer madness by trying to understand what information the IRS wants from you, let alone how much money, will sympathise with a character in a New Yorker cartoon of yesteryear who complained, "You know, the idea of taxation with representation doesn't appeal to me much either."