

OUCH! Three Big Words

by Reg Green

In the last two and a half centuries the all-inclusive call of 'Liberty, Equality and Fraternity' has transformed the world.

Now the rallying cry of reformers has narrowed meanly to 'Conformity, Equity and Ethnicity.'

Do these people, ignorant of history, realize they are advocating for the world as it was before democracy?