

Our Girls Matter – rally to call for deportation of the Rochdale Three

The Mass ‘Deport The Rochdale 3’ rally in Parliament Square will kick off at 12.00 hours. Attendees are advised to follow social distancing rules and wear masks where possible amid COVID-19

A rally organised by Hearts of Oak and their partners Women Against Groomers, following the start of Politicalite: “When Abdul Rauf, Adil Khan and Abdul Aziz were convicted in 2012 of appalling and racist sexual offences against young Rochdale girls, then Home Secretary Theresa May said that they would be deported after serving their sentences.”

“This has developed cross-party support, with Andy Burnham, Labour Mayor of Manchester, Tony Lloyd, Labour MP for Rochdale, and Christ Chapman, Conservative MP for neighbouring Heywood & Middleton, all calling for the three groomers to be returned to Pakistan. ”

“Four years after their release from prison and two years after being stripped of their British citizenship, news this evening that he has taken his family abroad for their protection after an arson attack on a property owned by his wife (not the only threat he and his family have faced recently) and the new recent Covid 19 regulations will make it impossible for him to return and be available in time.