

Over Target, Getting Flak: Australian Federal Senator Jacqui Lambie, Who Has Criticised Sharia, Is Told to Convert to Islam and Promote Sharia, Or Be Beheaded

As reported by the ABC's Tyson Shine on 1st March.

'Jacqui Lambie receives beheading threat, ordering her to help implement Sharia law in Australia'.

'A letter containing a threat to behead Tasmanian senator Jacqui Lambie unless she helps implement Sharia law in Australia has sparked a security assessment at the outspoken independent's office.

'The letter was received at the senator's Burnie office last week

For those who don't know, Burnie is a medium-sized (20,000 people) coastal town in Tasmania, Australia's southernmost and island state. Incidentally, a young man who grew up in Burnie, Cameron Baird, joined the Army and was killed in action in Afghanistan, receiving the Victoria Cross posthumously. – CM and included threats to behead the former Palmer United Party member unless she converted to Islam and helped implement Sharia law by March 18.

'It was accompanied by graphic images of a man being beheaded, which prompted the senator's office to treat the threats seriously.

"By the powers invested in me by Allah I sentence you to death", the letter said. "I will take the honour in beheading you...when you are least prepared; my men and I will take your office by surprise."

Peculiar wording. A western convert to Islam, perhaps? Anyway, I doubt any jihadi wannabe ghazi raider/ assassin will take this lady by surprise. She's a former soldier and has a lot of contacts in the local RSL (Returned Servicemen's League). – CM

'Senator Lambie has been a vocal critic of Islamic sharia law (as all decent people ought to be – CM) but she said the death-threats would not deter her.

Hear, hear! Dear Senator Lambie: please contact Dutch politician Geert Wilders and have a nice long heart-to-heart with him. He knows the territory that you are now entering; the dark, dangerous world inhabited by those who, within the West, and among its politicians, have dared to publicly oppose and critique any aspect of Islam. – CM

"I have no doubt that it is my stance against Sharia Law and my questions on Halal that are going on at the moment", she said.

"The bottom line is that we are at war with ISIS and we are just going to have to be extremely cautious."

Yes. Keep going, keep hammering at this issue, dear Senator; but take advice from the AFP and ASIO, and ...watch your back.

There is now in Australia – though fortunately still in very small numbers in your home state, Tasmania – a dangerous Fifth Column, out of which the assassins – the Sharia Enforcers – are beginning to rise in ever greater numbers. Brush off your own military training and never, never drop your guard. Fortunately, however, so far as I can discover, there are few or no identifiable Muslims in Burnie itself. When you are in town, the locals had better be on the lookout for any suspicious outsiders. – CM

'She said the matter had been handed over to the Australian Federal Police (AFP) and Tasmania Police.

"I'm ex-Army, so I guess that I'm always very conscious about what's going on around me and what's happening in my environment, so I'll just continue to be on that sort of high alert and just lift that a little bit more", she said.

Yes, Senator Lambie. Indeed, you are now on the front-line; a front-line of resistance against Islamisation, resistance against the Global Jihad. The ex-army independent Senator from the smallest state in Australia. – CM

'The staff member that received that letter has been offered some counselling.

"At this stage she hasn't taken up that offer, but that offer will always be open."

A few RSL members, veteran soldiers with experience in the badlands of the Dar al Islam in Iraq or Afghanistan, lounging around the office in a friendly sort of way, suitably equipped, would probably do more for staff morale than mere "counselling". – CM

'The senator said she would continue to go about her business as a senator undeterred.

Excellent. – CM

"I will continue to advocate for a ban on Sharia Law, [and on] unnecessary face-coverings in public, and tighter regulation of Halal certification fees in Australia – and to have those Australian citizens who assist Islamic State in any way, charged with the high crimes of Sedition or Treason.”

A good start. Work toward those goals – you will find that quite a lot of Australians are on board with those – but start thinking about advocating a ban on all further Muslim entry into Australia, too. – CM

‘A personal security assessment is being done to ensure the safety of Senator Lambie following the letter, the spokesman said.

‘The letter specifically mentioned a controversial proposal to build a mosque at Green Fields in Adelaide’s northern suburbs.

This is curious. Adelaide is in South Australia, not in Tasmania. Of course, Islamisation is a threat to all of Australia, so all sensible Australian Infidels need to be aware of what is happening around the country. – CM

‘Senator Lambie said the threat to her life would not help the proponents of the mosque.

Indeed.– CM

“If they think that’s [the] way of going around to get a mosque in Adelaide, by threatening my life, then I tell you what, they’re certainly going in the wrong direction”, she said.

‘The senator conceded the death threat could be a hoax, but she said she was taking it very seriously.

“This is what we’re waiting for AFP to determine, and I can’t do anything else apart from get on with my daily life, until that’s been determined.” she said.

Islamophiles whether as Muslims or fully-conditioned dhimmis or because they are nice people who haven't a clue what Islam and jihad are actually all about and haven't yet exerted themselves to find out. Intelligent, fully Islamo-informed and Islamocritical comments – though they do appear – are rare. – CM
