

"P is For 'Palestine': Blogger 'Israellycool' Satirises the Ummah's Latest Little Propaganda Piece

Just follow the link supplied; and then be sure to click on the embedded links which will direct you to the items that our intrepid Israeli friend has selected (out of a field simply packed with possible candidates) in order to create what might be described as a little alphabet of horrors.

Israellycool's illustrated "Alphabet" makes a worthy companion piece, I think, to Philippe Assouline's masterly "A Palestinian Lexicon", which Lexicon cries out to be put into colloquial French (if that has not already been done) and circulated in the Francophone portion of cyberspace, preferably as soon as possible, before the upcoming farcical "peace" conference in Paris takes place.

And since I have mentioned Mr Assouline, and new readers here might not have encountered his work (it was first published five years ago) here is the link that will take you to its appearance on this blog under the heading "An A-Z of Victimhood"

and here is the link (I hope it still works) that should take you to the whole, in its original place of publication.

Assouline's sarcastic entry on 'Peace' is particularly

“Peace: The process by which Israel voluntarily ethnically cleanses every last Jewish person from territory with deep Jewish significance that it won in a defensive war in exchange for increased terrorism, demonization, European and Turkish meddling, and summits at the White House.”
