

PEOPLE WILL DO WHAT THEY DO: The Story of Nervous Nancy

by Howard Rotberg

I am proud to come from Baltimore despite the crime and theft we're proud of our folks even the ones that left Lord knows it's poor and nothing fancy
And for us Dems we're proud of our feisty Nancy.

But from the time she moved to the San Francisco estate
She seems to see herself as the Queen of hate
Every time she attacks our President Trump
It is like she is taking all our votes to throw in the dump.

She keeps saying that Trump thinks he is above the law

But our Nancy made her hair-stylist break the lockdown, ha, ha

Impeaching the President is more important than reigning in the Chinese

Of course her husband and Joe Biden both are into the sleaze.

She loves to keep impeaching the President until his last day

But about the riots of Antifa and BLM she had nothing to say

To those who tore down Baltimore's Columbus statue

Her brilliant response was that "People will do what they do."
