

Podcast: Anti-PC Professor Michael Rectenwald on the New Woke Totalitarianism

The Anti-PC Professor, Michael Rectenwald, comes to The P.A.S. Report Podcast to discuss the new woke totalitarianism engulfing our society. Dr. Rectenwald was one of the first to do battle with the woke mobs, and he is on the front lines. We discuss how wokism has infected nearly every government institution, corporations, as well as other aspects of life, and the unholy alliance that has formed. However, the woke mobs may have overplayed their hands, and it seems as Americans have had enough and the pushback is building.
