

Police 'were told girl was pressured to prostitute herself to Rotherham taxi drivers in 1990s'

This has been going on for a very long time. From the regional northern newspaper And:-

Babies have been born as a direct result of the sustained sexual abuse of vulnerable teenage girls in Rotherham by a grooming ring, a court heard. Sheffield Crown Court heard two of the 12 alleged victims have had babies which they say were conceived when being abused, while a number of others had abortions after being made pregnant.

...victim was said to have been made pregnant by Arshid Hussain when she was 14 but she had a termination after the defendant allegedly told her she couldn't keep the baby or he would be sent to prison.

Ms Colborne said the girl was placed into foster care after a police protection order was made due to her being in 'moral and physical danger' but she was made pregnant by him again when she was 15, giving birth to a baby in 2001.

In the case of another complainant, Ms Colborne told the jury that the girl who was 13 or 14 at the time was persuaded to terminate a pregnancy conceived with Arshid Hussain after one of his brothers told her 'Ash had children with seven English women already'.

The trial continues.
