

President Trump's Lonely and Courageous Stance Regarding the Creation of a 22nd State for Arabism at this Time

By Gerald A. Honigman

President Trump, ignoring most Arabs's and other Islamists's sycophantic useful idiots, recently took a lonely, courageous stance regarding the creation of yet another state rewarding Arab terror, Arabism's 22nd so far, and SECOND, not first, in the original 1920 of Palestine, after Jordan was created via lopping off almost 80% of the total area in 1922...

The following is offered as critical historical evidence supporting President Trump's position that Arabs—by whichever name they choose to redub themselves—simply don't have.

Arabism simply doesn't deserve another independent state at this time in history, especially since both of its two main potential leaders in the land of the original 1920 Mandate of Palestine reject the permanency of a resurrected nation of the Jewish People, known to them as "kilab yahud" Jew dogs, in a region they claim to be solely "purely Arab patrimony," and to hell with any other people's hopes, rights, and aspirations, be they scores of millions of Jews, Kurds, Druse, Amazigh/"Berbers," Assyrian Christians, pre-Arab conquest native Egyptian Copts, Maronite Christian descendants of Phoenicians, and others as well.

Since France is leading the anti-Israel pack in the kafir (or dhimmi), Arab oil addicted and or age-old Church inspired antisemitic West in creating this SECOND state rewarding Arab terror, whether led by Hamas or its fake "moderate" flip side, Mahmoud Abbas's "pay to slay" Fatah/PA, please pay close
