

Queensland teenager who fled to join Al Qaeda affiliate became radicalised over the internet, an Islamic leader says

yet another* young non-Muslim Aussie who has swallowed the dawa snake-oil, and Gone Jihad, all the way to Syria. This is tragic, and it's infuriating. Our schools and parents and government are watching our kids being suckered by Islam. How, how, how do we get it through to our kids, our young men and women – Islam is evil...DO NOT CONVERT to Islam?*

Because it isn't only the 'naturally wicked' or the stupid who swallow the Muslim lies. (Otherwise jihadwatch forum wouldn't have Saleem Smith and Istanbulchick, both of whom converted to Islam on the basis of insufficient information and then, when they got a bit further in, and found out what it was all about, got right back out as fast as they could).
