

ROUND MIDNIGHT AT THE HOUSE OF MYSTERY

Last night, round about midnight, two very knowledgeable, and laid back gentlemen, Alan Warren and Dr. Joseph Uscinski interviewed Phyllis Chesler about her upcoming book Requiem for a Female Serial Killer. They talked about whether serial killers are Born Bad or Made Bad; how Aileen Wuornos is radically different from male and from other female serial killers; what childhood factors figure into spree, mass, and serial killers. You can listen to the conversation HERE. Fast forward about 4 minutes into the recording.
