

Safiyya Shaikh: Female Isis supporter jailed for life over plot to bomb St Paul's Cathedral

From after that hearing saying the claim had been a “big lie” and that she would have carried out the attack.

The Isis supporter instructed a defence barrister to tell the judge what she said and that “her intentions had not waned”.