

Somaliland & Good News From Morocco...

By Gerald A. Honigman

Recent reports have announced that Israel is extending its military reach into Africa with a Morocco defense partnership. This is potentially good news.

Much of my own doctoral studies were devoted to the quest for justice for ALL of MENA's diverse peoples, such as some 41 million Kurds, and a similar number of Amazigh/Kabyle/"Berbers" in North Africa—especially in the Atlas Mountain area of Morocco—with others in Algeria, and elsewhere as well. See here...

I subsequently researched what the relationship between the current government of Morocco and its Amazigh population is and discovered truly encouraging news:

The Foreword to my forever timely book is written by the President of the Kurdistan National Assembly of Syria, and major jacket comments are penned by the Amazigh publisher of Afrique-du-Nord.

Together, those two gentlemen represent some 80 million TRULY stateless peoples, who, unlike Arabs, don't even possess one independent nation between them, let alone almost two dozen which Arabs now possess, including one on almost 80% of the original 1920 Mandate of Palestine lopped off in 1922 as a gift by Great Britain to ARABISM's cause, and known as Jordan today.

The Quest for Justice in the Middle East has been acquired by numerous universities and other institutions of higher learning all across the globe, and specifically delves into the struggles of the various indigenous peoples of the Middle East and North Africa (MENA) for their own share of the justice pie which has been denied to them by primarily their assorted Arab, Arabized and Islamized other ethnic groups, and Arabized Turkish conquerors.

The point is that there are many other indigenous peoples in the region besides Arabs—by whichever label they choose to call themselves—whose aspirations and rights have been virtually ignored, largely due to much of the world's addiction to Arab oil.

ARABISM, by virtue of its settling, imperialist, colonizing jihadi invasions and conquests of hundreds of millions of OTHER non-Arab peoples' ancestral homelands from the 7th century onwards up to this very day, simply declared the entire scope of its conquests to be henceforth "purely Arab patrimony," and to hell with anyone else's former ancestral claims to the lands of the ever expanding Dar ul-Islam.

Note the coin at the top of this link is an Iudaea (Judaea) Capta coin... NOT an Arabia or non-existent "Palaestina" capta one...

It was the Jewish People in their 4,000 year old ancestral homeland who fought the Roman and Byzantine Empires for their freedom and independence, clear up until the 7th century C.E. invasion of genocidal Arab hordes pouring in from a rapidly desiccating Arabian Peninsula, stealing indigenous peoples' lands in all directions.

The conquered inhabitants were then given two choices: convert to Islam or lose their heads if they were males, and become enslaved if they were females and children.

A decision was later made to allow certain peoples who possessed holy books to remain alive if they accepted certain rules of demeaning subservience and agreed to special taxation—the "dhimmi" populations of Christians, Jews, and Zoroastrian Persians. Druze were later added as well...

To remove any factual doubts about who the land of Judah/Judaea/"Syria Palaestina" actually is the 4,000 year old ancestral homeland of, despite periods of forced exile due to various imperial conquests, open the following link for extensive corroborating evidence..

Returning to ARABISM'S conquests, Semitic Phoenician descendant, Lebanese Christians, Coptic Christian Egypt, Kurdistan of the Medes, Hurrians , and Gutians,(Guti-Gurti-Kurdi) and Zoroastrian Persia also fell into Arab jihadi (Islamic holy war waging) hands.

The recent renewed conflict between Arabized Pakistan and Hindu India is all about ARABISM's Islamic fervor to continue its holy conquest of kafir infidel lands, as is also the Arab-Israeli conflict, continuing Arab Jihadi attacks on Kurds, Druze, Assyrian, Chaldean, and other Christians, the beheadings of Christian black Africans by Arabized and Islamistized black Africans in Boko Haram, and so forth.

Related to all of this is some additional wonderful news involving Israel granting recognition to the African Muslim nation of Somaliland, located in the Horn of Africa leading into the Indian Ocean from the Persian Gulf opposite the home base of the Iranian proxy Houthis in Yemen, the same folks who repeatedly blasted Israel with powerful ballistic missiles after it was brutally attacked by Arab butchers on October 7th, 2023.

Let's just say that Israel just cut its potential retaliatory flight time immensely if Somaliland permits this. Admittedly, it would put itself at risk, so perhaps this idea should be kept on the back burner for now.

Democratic Somaliland is light years different from its Somalian autocratic former masters, and seeks membership in the Abraham Accords.

Here's an example of what huge numbers of Somali (NOT Somaliland) immigrants have brought into America...

... and note next how Somalis in America have been recruited to join extremist jihadi organizations dedicated to the destruction of Israel and conquest of kafirs all over the world...

What a great naval and air base Somaliland's coastline offers to America, if President Trump grants these deserving people the recognition they deserve.

He's considering a second state for Arabs in the original 1920 Mandate of Palestine, which will very likely revert to terrorism against Israel, so why deny these friendly, democratic, non-terrorist people their one?

Unlike Hamas enabling, black African slave holding Qatar and Saudi Arabia, Somaliland could provide guilt free support to Israeli, American, and other nations' security due to its amazing geographical strategic location.

It's time for President Trump to keep his word to the courageous Iranian people, who have just recently suffered nearly a thousand slaughtered by the mullahs' forces, and it's time for him to act for another non-Arab people in quest for justice as well...
