

Tanveer Ahmed who murdered Glasgow shopkeeper Asad Shah held jail meet-and-greets with fanatics who hail him as a hero

From the rock star status. It's terrifying."

Extremist Ahmed signs photos and posters behind bars for the brainwashed Islamic fanatics who idolise him as a "celebrity". He regularly receives letters from supporters asking to visit and salute him in jail for stabbing newsagent Asad Shah to death over a Happy Easter message to customers. . . devoted family man Asad – who followed Islam's moderate Ahmadi sect – was killed four hours after his friendly Facebook post.
