

The Bizarre Reactions to the Hamas Massacre

by Armando Simón

Every villain is followed by a sophist with a sponge. –Lord Acton

I could never be an adequate liberal. Whether it is due to my temperament or to my professional training, I am in the habit of seeing both sides of any issue, even though I may incline to one side or the other. This has always been the case with the ungodly mess in the Middle East. Additionally, I have had both Palestinian and Israeli friends and I know that there is plenty of blame to go around.

Having said that, on viewing the recent repulsive acts of butchery by Palestinians, I am writing off any consideration of Palestinians' views or cries.

Frankly, they can all go to hell.

I admit I was initially impressed by the well-coordinated attack as well as the novel use of paragliders, a contrast to the usual bombastic and inept attacks of the past. That is, until I asked myself, what was the goal? Was it to capture arms? Was it to free prisoners? Was it to seize territory?

No. It was simply to kill innocent people—just for the sake of killing. Civilians. Families. That was it. Murder for the sake of murder. Not only that, these sadistic savages went one step further, mutilating bodies and beheading babies, disemboweling women, raping and kidnapping assorted civilians who were just enjoying a music festival. The fact that the innocents were Jews is irrelevant; the atrocities were inherently revolting no matter who the victims were.

The instruments may be modern, but these are the same acts that primitive savages indulged in centuries ago. There is something about the Arab mentality that is still locked in that mindset. They have a primitive mind.

You are doubtful? Their children are taught to kill Jews.

Fine, call this racism if you want, I don't care, but the actions speak for themselves.

What finally solidified my change of mind were the number of interviews of Palestinians in Gaza, America and the UK when they were asked immediately afterwards about the massacres in Israel. They automatically began wailing about their past oppression. Absolutely no empathy, no human compassion. Pictures of the Israeli victims have been ripped down. Worse, we have seen massive celebrations overjoyed at the fact that hundreds of innocent civilians of all ages were butchered

Imagine that, that some would celebrate the killing of innocent people.

Just like other Muslim savages did after 9/11.

This is probably due to their religion. I have written before that Islam is the perfect religion for criminals. Whereas other religions urge their followers to renounce what we would call Satanic impulses, Islam actually encourages its followers to carry out murder, rape, and theft towards non-Muslims. It is truly a Satanic religion. If you think this is exaggeration just read the Koran. Read the history of Islam. Unlike the latte sipping, cocaine snorting Hollywood celebrities I have read the history of Islam and I have read both the Koran and the Hadith.

And, yes, I am Islamophobic; to be Islamophobic is a rational choice by any civilized person. I simply don't understand why, when leftists "accuse" someone of being Islamophobic, the person doesn't simply acknowledge it—proudly—instead of stupidly groveling and apologizing.

Mind you, I have no illusions about Israel. I am not one of those Christian evangelists who believe that Israel can do no wrong/has ever done no wrong, and that Armageddon is just around the corner whereupon Israel will be a pivotal participant. I have also never adhered to the widely held belief that occasional criticism of the country or the latest prime minister (like any other country or world politician)—or for that matter criticizing American Jews—was to reveal oneself as a Nazi.

But if I have to choose between the two, Israel is hands down the logical choice. Israelis do not go around beheading children. They are not pathological liars. They do not deliberately target civilians. And many of them in the past have expressed sympathy for the plight of the Palestinians as well as condemned the lawless settlers. Furthermore, if you brush aside the occasional chauvinistic claims, there is no question that Israel is an oasis of scientific and cultural progress whereas most Arab countries are an intellectual wasteland. And you have to admit that dropping leaflets in northern Gaza warning civilians to get out of harm's way is unique in warfare.

Violence by Israel has always been as a response by Arabs' acts of violence; it's not as if Israelis get bored and decide to bomb a town into rubble just to relieve the boredom. For Palestinians—and Arabs in general—they only see the response in their minds; it's as if they are unable to conceive the concept of cause and effect.

The Trojan Horse has dislodged its contents

But it gets worse.

What has shocked many individuals (Jews and Gentiles) in the West is that there were/are celebrations of the massacre taking place in America, Britain, Australia, France, Greece with viciously hateful chants like “Gas the Jews!” and praising Hitler. The individuals involved were a combination of immigrant Muslims and (native) Communists. And, as is their wont, they of course engaged in terrorist activities in those countries. Such is the nature of savages.

They also engaged in the tactic of blaming the victim, claiming that Israel deserved the attack.

For years—actually now for decades—many have warned against letting these savages immigrate into civilized Western countries and, of course, the Casandras have been subjected to a cascade of harassment and insults, of which “racist” and “fascist” are the favorite insults, since the insulting individuals are leftists and they only respond one way as all good NPCs do. The elites have ignored the wishes and demands of their citizens on this and many other issues. Now, we see that instead of assimilating into the welcoming society (which Muslim savages openly despise), acts of kindness and benevolence by Westerners are repaid with violent crimes, from cannibalism, to murder.

Recently, a Dutch ship rescued a boatload of savages from the high seas, whereupon the savages attacked the rescuing crew with their hidden knives.

And you're surprised?

Seriously?

On the other hand, countries like Poland, Japan and Hungary that have prevented immigration from third World countries in defiance of the EU elites have not had any problems with jihadists. Cause and effect.

America was likewise experiencing terrorism by Muslims which killed many people. One of the first things that Donald Trump did was to restrict immigration from countries that were infested with Islamic fanatics. This sent liberals in America—including countless Jews—into a frenzy of hysterics at his “racism” and they set up multiple legal challenges which Trump’s staff finally overcame.

Since then, terrorist acts by Muslims have disappeared. Cause and effect.

The anti-Semitism of the left

The accusation of “anti-Semitism” is one of the left’s repertoire of insults to hurl at their opponents, regardless of relevance or truth, so it seems bizarre that liberals are engaging in anti-Semitic acts and words. Nonetheless, that is what they are doing.

—A group of Jewish students barricaded themselves in the library of NYC for safety from pro-Palestine “activists.”

—A man with a knife broke into a Jewish family’s home shouting “Free Palestine!” and “Brown people matter!”

—At UCLA, leftists and Muslims pranced about yelling, “Intifada!”

–A former Communist teacher and now state representative for the Democratic Party attended a Palestinian rally, and shrugged off Hamas' crimes.

–New York University's Law School Bar Association president approved the slaughter of Israelis.

–A poll showed that a majority of 18-24 believed Hamas's massacre of 1,200 Israeli civilians was "justified."

–A city in California passed a resolution condemning Israel as practicing ethnic cleansing.

– University of California Los Angeles (UCLA), Northeastern University School of Law and Georgetown Law Center are promoting terrorist organizations for their students.

–Taliban flags were waved at a pro-Palestine demonstration at Florida Atlantic University.

–The Communist New York's branch of Democratic Socialists of America (DSA) waved the red star alongside anti-Israel placards. Remember that comrade Senator Bernie Sanders wanted to be elected in order to establish "democratic socialism?" Sanders, a Jewish Communist is anti-Israel. Reps. Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez, D-N.Y.; Rashida Tlaib, D-Mich.; Cori Bush, D-Mo.; and Ilhan Omar, D-Minn. Reps. Jamaal Bowman, D-N.Y.; and Greg Casar, D-Texas, are members of DSA. Maurice Isserman, a Jewish Marxist who had belonged to the Communist terrorist group SDS of the '60s, and co-founder of DSA, resigned from his position in the organization over the anti-Semitism.

–A lecturer at Stanford University asked his Jewish students to identify themselves, then had them stand in the corner and shamed them. What is equally shameful is that the sheep complied. Jewish students are fearful for their lives in leftist American universities.

–Thanks to some State Department leftist bureaucrat, tens of thousands of Somali Muslim savages were sent to Minnesota. There was a pro-Palestine demonstration where an old man in a car was attacked. A city council candidate took part and urged people to find out who the old man was; he also took part in the George Floyd riots.

—A Cornell professor stated the massacre by Hamas was “exhilarating.” He had previously called the Fraternal Order of Police a “terrorist organization.”

—The New York Pravda has hired a journalist who admires Hitler. Mind you, the newspaper staff is predominantly Jewish and anti-Israel and anti-Semitic.

—A transgender University of California Davis has threatened to hunt down Jews in their homes.

—Let’s not forget the media. Various news organization refuse to refer to Hamas or to the murderers as “terrorist.” It would hurt their feelings. Or they refuse to acknowledge that the atrocities occurred even though the terrorists themselves recorded it for later entertainment. Or they engage in their usual practice of fake news. One Jewish journalist tried to make a distinction between “beheaded babies” and “babies found headless,” writing it was important to differentiate the two.

—There is also support through silence. The SPLC, which has labeled the parents’ organization, Moms for Liberty, as a terrorist group, has kept silence on the Hamas atrocity.

Young people have been lobotomized in universities by Communists intent on cloning themselves and, as we can see, they have done a good job, thanks partly to the mouthbreathing retards that we call conservatives doing nothing to arrest this trend. They have succeeded in making their students hate their country. And, as alarming as the above may be, keep in mind that for some time now, liberals have been engaging in censorship and have called for the elimination of the Republican Party in “order to save democracy,” have also called for the extermination of “MAGA extremists,” as well as called for the establishment of re-education camps for political enemies.

They mean it.

As one commentator aptly put it: “You know we got problems when the Ayatollah, our politicians and academia all sound alike.”

In a way it’s not surprising. You may remember that days after 9/11 there were many liberals laughing over the horror, saying America deserved it. One particular individual—who passed himself off as a Native American—by the name of Ward Churchill gloated in an article. He was canceled. How times have changed! Now he would have been made dean at Harvard or at the very least be given a tenure position.

American Jews have cut their own throats

But now, we should discuss something that few want to discuss, to wit, that American Jews are paradoxically responsible to a large degree for the sudden tsunami of anti-Semitism.

Elsewhere I have discussed the Masada mentality that many Jews have, which we are seeing develop. I mentioned that many Jews fulminated against Trump and welcomed Jew-hating Muslims into America because in doing so, they patted themselves on the back as being “noble” and “courageous” (more accurate words would be “suicidal” and “stupid”); these are the same Jews that have supported Ilhan Omar and Rashid Tlaib. They felt very “noble” and “courageous” in doing so.

Apparently, they thought there would be a change of minds among the Muslim immigrants when they saw how “noble” and “courageous” those Jews were and they would all kiss each other, link arms and sing Kumbaya.

It is the same kind of mentality that we have seen in those instances of organizations of homosexuals participating in the pro-Palestine demonstrations.

But some of those Jews were Marxists and deep down they knew that the influx of Muslims would be conducive towards the destruction of the country in order to build a Marxist utopia. This is the same kind of logic that explains why Marxist Jews have been bankrolling anti-white racist persons and organizations—such as the Marxist BLM—except that large numbers of blacks have also attacked Jews and Asians, thereby going against the script. No matter, Marxist Jews persist in doing so, even at their own destruction. The reader may not know that the person who drew up a plan and convinced Jim Jones to carry out mass suicide for ideological reasons in Jonestown was a Jew.

And now, the Muslim savages inside America and elsewhere are targeting Jews. Will Marxist Jews face reality? Will they abandon anti-America, anti-Israel slogans? No. Fanatics rarely change.

Think I am exaggerating? Look at the instances of leftist Jews condemning Israel and supporting the Palestinians. Along with Sweden's most obnoxious brat supporting Palestinians a Jew can be seen with a similar sign.

What is amusing, in a perverse sort of way, is that other leftist Jews are shocked at their leftist friends' expressed anti-Semitism and celebration of the civilian massacre?

Surprised? Seriously??
