

The Clinton-Rodham Nuclear Fallout Family

Mostly about Tony Rodham, but Hugh Rodham also makes an appearance, here. And Clinton's half-brother the cocaine distributor is also mentioned.

Who are the Clintons? What do they want? Are they Mr. and Mrs. Macbeth, wanting power, or Mr. and Mrs. Mantalini, wanting money? Or do they want Power and Money, which so often come together nowadays. Feel free to choose the couple the Clintons remind you of most, depending on whether your taste at the moment runs to Shakespeare or to Dickens.
