

The Democrat plan to steal this election and many more

by Steve Hecht

Fidel Castro's Strategy Has a New Standard-Bearer

Fidel Castro's attitude—inside the revolution, everything; outside the revolution, nothing—is on display now in the United States. Anything goes. Win at all costs. Nothing else matters. Ends justify the means.

Democrats, their media partners, and their violent wing are following Castro's takeover strategy: demonize the target and create chaos. Their immediate objective is the defeat of President Donald Trump, for which they feel justified in committing electoral fraud.

Black Lives Matter (BLM) leaders proclaimed "We aspire to build a world rooted in a vision of freedom and the peace that only comes with justice." This explains the "no justice, no peace" slogan they chant to justify their violence aimed at overthrowing our system.

Hillary Clinton's and former President Barack Obama's inspiration Saul Alinsky explained the organizer's view of free elections in his signature 1971 work confirms Biden corruptly had the Ukrainian prosecutor general fired to help his son Hunter. Biden has previously denied having any knowledge of Hunter's business affairs, but we just learned the vice president had a meeting, arranged by Hunter, with a led the effort to take over Guatemala's criminal prosecution and judiciary. Biden's prosecutors and judges protected the successors to the Castro-supported guerrillas. They also BPR.