

The Imam Behind The Latest Plot In Italy

Here.

He is Pakistani, and arrived in Italy six years ago.

He has no record of employment.

He has six children, and a wife, whom somehow were supported.

He owned his own dwelling.

He had time to gather funds, apparently, money spent on plots to attack the Western Infidels from within.

Among the targets: the Vatican.

He hates Infidels, and the West in which he has been allowed to settle, and to procreate, supported at every turn by Italian taxpayers, unaware or if aware, feeling hopeless about remedying this situation.

He teaches his children – they are still small – exactly what he believes. They are growing up in an atmosphere suffused with Islam. This can mean nothing good for the Italians among whom they have been allowed to live and obtain support.

It is the same all over Western Europe and North America, among the advanced countries, whose principles, laws, customs, understandings, are flatly contradicted by the tenets and teachings of Islam.

How and why has this been allowed to happen, and keep happening? Why is it not stopped? Where are the political figures who will state the truth, and protect us in our own countries, that is in our homes?
