

The Latest Addition To Las-Vegas-By-The-Kaaba

Here.

The Guardians of the Two Holy Places have no taste; the damage they have done to Mecca can, however, be considered by those who dislike Islam to be a good thing, for their buildings, each more hideous than the next, mock and diminish the solemnity of the Hajj and the walking widdershins round that Magic Wonderstone, itself now put permanently in the shade thanks to so many light-blocking looming luminaries of architectural mauvais goût.