

The Party of Sexual Perverts

By Armando Simón

Mark Levine labeled the Democratic Party the Party of Hate; others have described it as the Party of “Death to America.” A very good case can be made for both descriptions. The statement that the Democratic Party is the party of sexual perverts is not an ad hominem statement nor meant as an insult, but as an accurate description, an easily verified description which I will herewith demonstrate. This moniker is something that Republicans should hammer home with the public (but probably won’t; to do so “wouldn’t be polite”).

This is why they support homosexuals, transgenders, children exposed to drag queens, and homosexual children’s books.

Coming from a research background, I often cite data, that is, lists of facts, without intervening flowery statements. While general accusations can be waved away with equally general denials, data – that is, detailed facts – cannot be waved away, much as leftists would like to otherwise. Now, I can write grandiose or inflammatory essays along with the best of them, but listing data, undeniable data, is the best choice.

Here goes:

Democratic California Rep. Eric Swalwell was hit with multiple accusations of being a serial rapist. What is unusual is that both the media and allied Democrats were keeping the allegations alive—very uncharacteristic; ordinarily, they would ignore something like this, but since he was running for governor of California with zero chance of being elected, even with the consistent electoral fraud, they threw him under the bus. Unlike their response when it was found he had relations with a Chinese spy, which they ignored or downplayed. And the fact that they are doing so now without hesitation means that they knew long ago of his crimes.

In Arizona, Democratic state senators hosted a “Drag story hour” for children and adults – inside the State House.

Robert Carrion, a Democrat, in Cape Coral was recently arrested for possession of child pornography.

In Kentucky, a Democratic senator opposed a bill banning child sex toys and referred to pedophiles as “minor-attracted persons.” Leftists always use euphemisms to promote repugnant ideas. And, yes, people do fall for that trick. A lot of people.

In Kansas City, Missouri, the Democratic mayor along with other Democratic officials had a “National Reading Day.” Not books like “Tom Sawyer” or “Treasure Island.” No! The books read were written with the purpose of brainwashing children to “explore their gender identity” (more euphemisms) and to encourage them to become transgender.

New York Democrat Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez praised a drag queen wandering around in the halls of Congress.

Staff members of a Democratic senator from Delaware were found indulging in sodomy inside the Judiciary Committee hearing room.

And speaking of Democrats from Delaware, we had pseudo-President Joe Biden. His daughter’s diary revealed that they used to shower together. That’s one way to bond. His crackhead son recorded himself using drugs and having sex with multiple prostitutes. Biden was also outraged – yes, outraged! – that pornographic books were removed from elementary school libraries.

In Michigan, a Democratic government staffer expressed being aroused by the “sexy Satanic statue” erected at the Michigan state capitol.

In New York, a Democratic senator who helped pass a bill targeting Donald Trump on accusation of rape was himself accused of rape.

In a symbolic slap to parents, a Democratic Fairfax County School Board member was sworn into office not on the Bible, but on a stack of pro-homosexuality books.

In New York, Erie County Democratic party chairman was sentenced for having sexual relations with a 9-year-old. Now you know why Democrats pander to pedophiles.

In California, Democrats blocked a bill that would make child trafficking a more serious felony than it is presently. Now you know again why Democrats pander to pedophiles.

In Maryland, a Democratic mayor was caught with child porn and distribution thereof.

In Wisconsin, a Democratic judge was found distributing child pornography.

Democrat Chasten Buttigieg, husband of erstwhile Transportation Sec. Pete Buttigieg, was shown in a video having children recite the pledge of allegiance to ... the "pride" flag.

In Spain, the Minister for Equality (!) proclaimed that children should have sex with adults if they want to. She is a socialist, the Spaniard version of a Democrat.

[Editor's note: The AP tried to debunk this story. Here's the quotation from the AP's own article.

But to talk about sex education, for example, which is a right of boys and girls, regardless of who their families are. Every boy, every girl, every trans child in this country has the right to know their own body, to know that no adult can touch their body if they don't want them to, and that if they do then that is a form of violence.

They have the right to know that they can love and have sexual relations with anyone that they want, based on mutual consent. These are recognized rights.

Judge for yourself.]

The Democratic Michigan governor posed for a picture with a bizarre, sexualized person.

And speaking of pictures, who could forget Democratic Florida governor candidate Andrew Gillum, found passed out, naked, and lying on drugs and his own vomit next to another naked man?

And then, there is the appropriately named Democratic Rep. Anthony Weiner who sent women naked pictures of himself – and he was far from being Arnold Schwarzenegger.

In New Hampshire, a Democratic transgender representative was arrested for possession of child pornography and sexual abuse of children.

To finish, it is only appropriate to remember serial rapist Bill Clinton. And the feminists who came to his defense. Likewise with Joe Biden.

Notice in many of the above instances the silence of the national media hivemind. Almost as if it was taking orders not to report such outrages to the general public. Not so with Swalwell. He's toast.

Regardless of the censorship on this (and other subjects), you can't help but come to the obvious conclusion. The Democrat Party is the party of sexual perverts.
